COMMENTS:

The main concern I have is the impact on the local economy. If the town doesn't remain viable due to the rail system
there should be compensation for the towns.
or other wise the small towns won't exist anymore

Please note: Your comment(s) must be received by the Department of Energy by June 1, 2004 to be considered. Comments received after the close of the comment period will be considered to the extent practicable.

If you prefer to mail your comments, you may use the back side of this sheet as a postage-paid, self-mailer. To do so, fold in thirds along the dotted line so the address and postage-paid notice are visible, then secure with tape.
